Ivor and Karen from the Nuthampstead Airfield Museum recently lead two successful Walk and Talks. For those of you who missed out - you'll be pleased to know that there is another one coming up!

The Quiz Teams have been pushing their general knowledge to the edge! Have you booked your team in for the next one?

Burns Night was a roaring success. And although the haggis took centre stage, the piper and Master of Ceremonies were brilliantly entertaining!

Sally from Dog and Bone has been refining our local dogs' film and tv skills! Sally represents over 100 dogs and regularly books dogs in for national tv work. She has several training sessions coming up at The Woodman Inn

NUTHAMPSTEAD AIRFIELD MUSEUM

The museum opens for the 2024 season on 14th April!

On Saturday 13th of April, Ivor Warne leads another popular Airfield Walk and Talk. Pre-booking booking only. £7.50 per walker. Email events@nutwoodpubs.com to reserve a place.

On 25th May the Nuthampstead Museum will host a memorial in honour of the airmen of the 398th Bombardment Group. The memorial will start at 11am. There will also be a vintage car display, a re-enactment troupe and a dinner dance in the evening with the amazing Miss Jones Jazz Band. One for the diary! Please email events@nutwoodpubs.com for more information.

INTRODUCING...

Liam

'Liam can usually be found at The Pheasant in Great Chishill, or shooting pool at The Woodman Inn on his down time.'

What's your favourite dish on the menu? I'd have to flip a coin between the duck breast and the chicken supreme. The sauce on the chicken is to die for!

How long have you been with Nutwood Pubs? I have worked locally in hospitality for 12 years, but with Nutwood Pubs for about a year.

Do you have a hobby? I've played tournament paintball for the last 7 years, after giving up on rugby at the behest of a broken body.

Who would you invite to dinner? Pedro Pascal. His 'on set' stories of Game of Thrones would be fantastic and he seems like great fun.
